This musical takes a funny, insightful, heartwarming look at what is profound in everyday life. The actors share stories that feature colorful characters such as: a shy little boy who only wants to play the "pig" in his class production and steals the show; a man whose dream of flying carries him into the air in a lawn affixed with weather balloons; and a "mother of the bride" who's planned a perfect wedding—until fate intervenes. These stories celebrate our very existence, from the whimsy of childhood to the wisdom of old age.
